

NARRATIVE, SELF-CONSTITUTION AND THE SOCIAL

Arendt-Schürmann Symposium 2023

Organisation: Daniel R. Rodríguez-Navas / Pierre-Jean Renaudie

New School for Social Research | Université Jean Moulin Lyon 3
Transatlantic Research Partnership & FACE Foundation

FRIDAY APRIL 7

1:30-1:45 Daniel R. Rodríguez-Navas (NSSR):
Opening Remarks

1:45-2:45 Pierre-Jean Renaudie (Jean-Moulin | Lyon III):
Out Of Nowhere: On the Narrator's Perspective and the Authority of Narratives

2:45-3:45 Gwenda-lin Grewald (NSSR):
The Work of Fiction: Muthos in Aristotle's Poetics and in Fashion

Coffee Break 4:00-5:00

Jean-Michel Rabaté (University of Pennsylvania):
Kafka's Investigations of Selfhood: Otherness and Recognition

5:00-6:00 Sandra Laugier (Paris I | Panthéon-Sorbonne):
Selfhood, Care and Moral Education in Contemporary Television

6:00-7:00 Reception

7:00-9:00 Conference dinner

SATURDAY APRIL 8

10:30-11:30 Daniel R. Rodríguez-Navas (NSSR):
Beneath the Limits of Accountability (Or the Persistence of Individualism)

11:30-12:30 Miranda Young (NSSR):
Narrative Care: A Political Methodology After Brison

12:30-2:00 Lunch Break

2:00-3:00 Chiara Pavan (Archives Husserl de Paris, Irphil):
Are there authentic self-narratives? A debate between Ricoeur and Butler

3:00-4:00 Peter Galison (Harvard):
Dream of a Shadow (Film Screening)

4:00-5:00 Jocelyn Benoist (Paris I | Panthéon-Sorbonne):
Nothing to Declare (about Myself)

5:00-6:00 Reception

New School for Social Research
Starr Foundation Hall, University Center UL102
63, Fifth Avenue, New York

Contacts: danielrn@newschool.edu / pierre-jean.renaudie@univ-lyon3.fr

